

COYOTE JUNCTION BIO

Quick Bio:

Coyote Junction is a high-energy party and events band from Lethbridge, Alberta. With powerful vocals, tight musicianship, and a setlist that blends classic rock, country, and 90s favorites, they know how to keep any crowd singing and dancing. Celebrating over 10 years of live performances, Coyote Junction is a trusted choice for festivals, weddings, and corporate events across Southern Alberta.

Full Band Bio:

Coyote Junction is a seasoned party and events band based in Lethbridge, Alberta. For over a decade, they have been entertaining audiences across Southern Alberta with their powerful vocals, tight musicianship, and crowd-pleasing versatility. Their dynamic setlists blend classic rock, country, and 90s favorites—ensuring the dance floor stays full from the first note to the encore.

Known for their professionalism and high-energy performances, Coyote Junction has earned a reputation as a go-to band for weddings, corporate events, and community celebrations. They have taken the stage at major regional festivals including the Lethbridge Rotary Dragon Boat Festival, Thunder in the Bridge, and Cornfest, and have played countless venues and events throughout Southern Alberta.

Coyote Junction has also had the opportunity to share the stage with acclaimed artists including Tom Cochrane, Tyler Braden, and Cooper Alan, further solidifying their standing as a band capable of delivering top-tier entertainment.

With over 10 years of experience, Coyote Junction continues to build momentum as one of Southern Alberta's most trusted live bands—bringing energy, variety, and unforgettable music to every event.

Press Bio:

Coyote Junction is a high-energy party and events band from Lethbridge, Alberta, known for their powerhouse vocals and genre-spanning setlists. For more than a decade, they have lit up stages across Southern Alberta, performing at festivals such as the Lethbridge Rotary Dragon Boat Festival, Thunder in the Bridge, and Cornfest. The band has also opened for celebrated artists including Tom Cochrane, Tyler Braden, and Cooper Alan. With a mix of classic rock, country, and 90s favorites, Coyote Junction brings a dynamic performance that keeps every crowd singing and dancing.

